MEDICAL CARD.

DOCTORS J. C. KNOX & J. H. JOHNSON, having been burned out by the recent fire, and their friends and patients can find them, until further notice, 1st door on the right, up stairs, in the Washington building. They commenced in carrying their stock of medicines, etc., and are now prepared to render professional services promptly, and in a reliable manner. Address to those who may favor them with a call. January 1st, 1886.

A dispatch from Springfield, Illinois, the 23rd, to the Washington Republic, says the Ward election in Congressmen, O'Brien's district on the 21st, resulted in a National Union majority. The Ward City Council is National Union. This is a rebuke to the City Council for its late action against the President. The issue was clearly and distinctly made between conservatives and radicals.

THE citizens of the town and country are informed that—
